Dear Officer Candidate Parents/Guardians,

It has been a great pleasure to work with your daughter this year. The girls were all called upon to excel many times this year and they exceeded my expectations. Now, it is time for yet another challenge. Much of the team's success next year will depend on the leadership and support of the officers and returning members of the team. Officers are selected on leadership and talent. Scores are based on the director's and judges' evaluations. As you know, there are only a few officer positions.

Prior to completing the officer packet, please take time to consider the commitment an Orange Pride Drill Team officer must make for her team. Additional time is required beyond team practice, the ability to work with and direct team members, work directly with officers and the director, maintain academics, be a campus role model, be able to handle stressful situations, and be willing to pay for any additional costs that reach beyond the scope of the team. Officer responsibilities should be taken seriously.

Take time to review the packet and complete all items that need to be submitted with the officer application. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. I am looking forward to the tryout process and a successful 2022-2023 school year.

Good Luck and Best Wishes,

Randie Wilson

Randie Wilson, Director

Below are a few points I need you to review while looking over the information outlined in this packet. You need to be fully aware of tryouts and what being an officer fully entails.

1. Not all of you will make officer, and if you do, you may not receive the position you want. If this happens, I expect you to handle the situation in a mature manner.
2. If you do not make officer, I expect to see you as a team member.
3. Being an officer requires continual commitment. Your dedication is required throughout the school year. Expectations for you exceed those of the team.
4. I expect appropriate behavior in which you exhibit leadership, character, and integrity. Leadership includes taking the initiative and taking control in situations that may be difficult, in which you must set your personal feelings aside.
